Provider Profile

Information provided by the provider describing their agency:

ARC of New London County is a private non-profit organization governed by a volunteer Board of Directors. We are dedicated to advocacy, education, information, and person centered, community based services. We were founded in 1952 by volunteer families looking for opportunities for their disabled children. Today, from our headquarters in Norwich, CT, we serve over 400 individuals of all ages throughout our local communities. In partnership with national, state, and other local chapters, we have grown to be a strong force for the advancement of people with intellectual and other related disabilities.

With a staff of 130, The Arc of New London County provides many different services including; Group Day and Employment Services, Group Homes, Individualized Home Supports, Respite, Recreation, and seasonal camping at Camp Harkness.
